Healers

By Toni Littlejohn

*Artist's Reception April 27th
2:00 pm ~ 4:00 pm*

Toni Littlejohn believes: Art can be healing for the artist in the process of creating as well as for the people who experience the artwork. These paintings honor the many healers in our community and the people who help through West Marin Senior Services. Toni is a mixed media artist living and working in Point Reyes Station. She knows firsthand that making art is a healing practice. She has been leading "Wild Carrots," an art workshop for artists and people new to art making, since 1992. Toni is also a founding member of Gallery Route One and its current Board President.
