

Audubon Canyon Ranch
Martin Griffin Preserve
Winter Arts & Nature Celebration
Saturday ~ December 10, 2016 ~ 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m.

Celebrate the season and winter solstice by creating beautiful arts & crafts, observing winter water birds, and getting inspired with nature-based entertainment for families and people of all ages. Enjoy hot tea, coffee, and apple cider and do your holiday shopping at the MGP Bookstore.

Also enjoy the Martin Griffin Preserve's picnic areas for lunch, hiking opportunities, trained naturalists available to answer questions, and 1,000 acres of redwood forests, fresh water ecosystems, coastal scrub, and mixed evergreen forests.

Come enjoy winter nature crafts and activities:

Bolinas Lagoon Winter Birding (all day): Observe winter water birds at the Clem Miller Overlook with spotting scopes and binoculars.

Holiday Nature Cards (all day): Make a beautiful holiday card made with natural materials.

Nature Sketching (11:00am-12:00pm): Join Artist and Ranch Guide, Allison Huey, for a guided nature hike focused on field sketching. Come learn tips and tricks on how to sketch flora, fauna, and fungi in the field while hiking the trails of Martin Griffin Preserve!

Hula Hooping Workshop (12:30- 2:00pm): Embrace the circle of life with hoop-trickster-sisters, Michelle Agbayani and Camille Smyth. Learn new tricks and transitions to incorporate into your Hula Hoop flow. Anyone can hoop!

Poetry Reading & Storytelling (2:00- 3:00pm): Bring winter-themed poems or short stories to share aloud. All visitors are encouraged to bring something to share!

ACR depends on the generosity of its community to administer education programs and manage the 5,000 acres of wildlife sanctuaries owned by ACR. Upon arriving at MGP, please make a donation! We suggest $15-25 per attendee per event. ACR Members receive a 10% discount at the MGP bookstore.
